Other Supplies:

Jr. Legal Pad ($6.99 for 12 at Staples Office Store)

Pentel RSVP Pens ($2.34 for 5 at Walmart)

Sticky Strip (104294, page 197)

Step 1: Cut 12 x 12 piece of Pretty in Pink Card Stock (I used Textured CS) 11 1/2" x 8"

Step 2: Score at 5 1/2", 6" and 6 1/2"

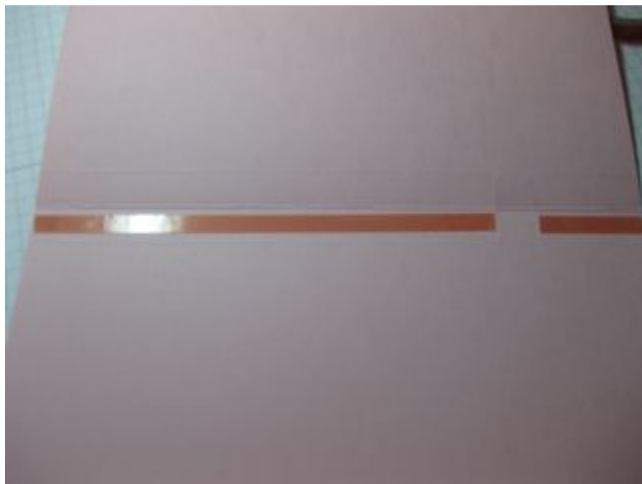

Step 3: Fold center score line - your piece will look like this

Step 4: With paper snips, cut 1 1/2" down from top into the score line. Cut again 1/2" below

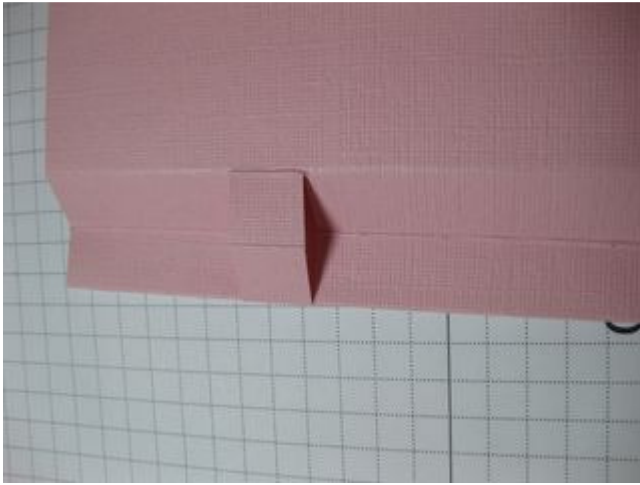

Step 5: Open up folder and add sticky strip to the left fold - making sure not to cover the cuts - sticky tape from top to first cut and then from 2nd cut to bottom

Step 6: Remove red tape and fold this to the BACK of your folder. Now your piece should look like this

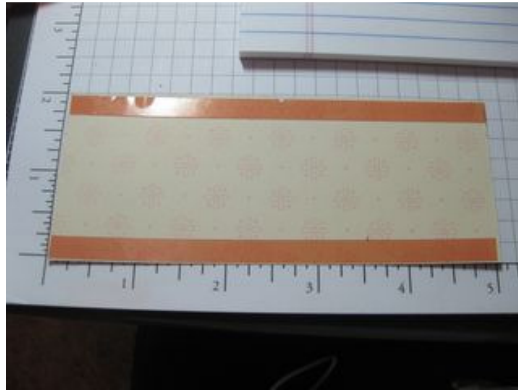

Step 7: Open folder and pop out the "pen holder"

Step 8: Burnish the front score line. Your folder will now look like this

Step 9: Add sticky strip to the 5" x 2" designer series paper for the top of the legal pad

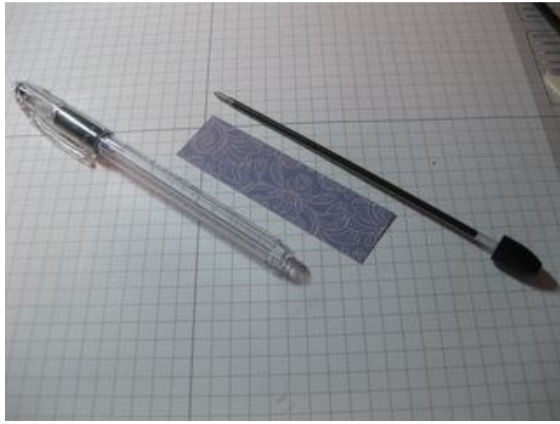

Apply this piece to the top of your jr. legal pad to cover up the pad name

Step 10: Apply sticky strip to all 4 sides of the back of the legal pad and adhere it to the inside of your folder

Step 11: Take the end off the Pentel RSVP pen and fold the 3 3/8" x 1" piece around the pen refill - slide it into the pen

Step 12: Layer Concord Crush 7 3/4" x 4 3/4" and 7 1/2" x 4 1/2" Lap of Luxury Designer Series Paper. Adhere to front of folder

Step 13: Stamp small butterflies on whisper white card stock and cut with 1 1/4" square punch. Adhere these 4 on 4 - 1 3/8" concord crush squares and then on the 3 1/4" square pretty in pink and then on the 3 3/4" square of concord crush. Adhere this on the front of your folder.
